

PEO'S of CSE Department are:

1. Computer Engineer of the program will get knowledge with good understanding of fundamentals of all subjects of computer Science & Engineering, so that students are able to analyze, design implement and test new projects using various modern engineering tools.
2. Computer Engineer of the programs are able to apply principle of computer science, mathematics, and scientific investigation to solve real world problem in appropriate to discipline, practice, and research and higher studies.
3. Computer Engineer of the programs exhibit skills in effective oral and written communication, critical thinking, confidence for leadership, team work, and managerial skills leading to entrepreneurship.
4. Computer Engineer of the programs will be employed in computing profession and will be engaged in learning, understanding, and applying new ideas and technologies as the field evolves.
5. To prepare the students for a successful career and work with values & social concern bridging the digital divide with social responsibilities and meeting the requirements of Indian and multinational companies.